Fly in an open, unobstructed environment

Calibrate compass

Flight within visual range

Cannot flight height below 120 meters

Stay away from crowds, trees, wires, tall buildings, airports, signal towers, etc. during flight. Radio towers, high-voltage lines, substations, and magnetic bulk metal may interfere with remote control signals and compasses, threatening flight safety.

Weather: thunder, fog, snow, strong wind (wind speed 10 meters per second or more), weather, do not fly.

Do not touch the propeller in the rotation of the work, or you may suffer serious damage to your body.

changes or modifications to equipment approved by the party responsible for compliance could void the user's authority to operate the equipment.

- For equipment to be used field and mounts, using, with the field to a 1.5m or longer device, consult the manufacturer of the equipment, the equipment, the equipment,