Date: May 5, 2017

To: FCC

Re: Inovonics Model Number: EN1252 Product Submission

FRN: 0008498040

To Whom It May Concern:

Inovonics is submitting Product Model EN1252 for a Single New Certification for a Modular Approval. This device has been tested and complies with FCC Part 15, Subpart C; 15.209 and 15.247.

Included in this submission are certain documents marked CONFIDENTIAL (ie: Block Diagram, Schematic, Operational Description, and Parts List). We request that these documents be kept confidential and maintained in a non-public file. A separate Request for Confidentiality has been included with our submittal documentation.

Additionally, Inovonics has included technical and other relevant documentation as specified in ACB's list of required documents. A description of the radio equipment is included in the Operational Description document.

Questions pertaining to this application may be directed to Corey Leavitt, as noted below.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Corey Leavitt
