Solder Board-Component View 4	 A photograph of a small electronic component, likely a USB dongle, resting on a blue surface. A black ruler with white markings is placed horizontally and vertically next to the component for scale. The component has a USB connector on one end and various electronic components on the other.
Antenna View	 A photograph showing two antennas against a blue background. A black antenna is on the left, and a green antenna is on the right. Red boxes and lines are used to label the components. A label 'LTE Antenna' points to the black antenna. A label 'Model: RE305' points to the black antenna. A label 'Model: RE306 SHP40' points to the green antenna.
