CHANGE IN ID

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION
Authorization and Evaluation Division
7434 Oakland Mills Road
Columbia, MD 21046

Dear Sir or Madame:

The module FCC ID: 2AG7VDR900VX is a PCIe radio module tested under parts 15C and 15E and received an FCC Grant on December 3, 2019.

Tekniam, LLC is submitting for approval the subject mini-PCIe form factor module for a change in identification as per part 2.933 for marketing advantages. A letter of agent authorization from the original manufacturer (Wallys Communications Technologies Co., Ltd) is included as part of this submission. There is no change in the design, circuitry, or construction, and the original test results continue to be representative of and applicable to the equipment module bearing the modified identification. Tekniam will use the radio module as is, with no modifications, and used as per the subject Grant.

An FCC ID will be placed on the product, located as described in the label information document, included as part of this submission. Photographs showing the exterior appearances of the subject module are included as part of the submission.
