

OM Power

Exhibit 1: ID Label Location Info
External Radio Frequency
Power Amplifier OM4001A

Model OM4001A

OM Power , s.r.o.
93030 BAC 126
Slovakia

E-mail: om-power@om-power.com

FCC ID and Label Location Information

In compliance with FCC Regulation 47 CFR Ch. 1 part 2.925, the OM Power OM4001A, External Radio Frequency Power Amplifier, Model OM4001A bears a label located on the rear plate of the equipment which displays the following FCC

Identifier:

Part (a)

1. The term FCC ID followed by the three digit Grantee Code and the six digit Equipment Product Code.

2. Not applicable.

3. Not applicable.

Part (b) Not applicable

Part (c) Reserved

Part (d)

1. The OM4001A label is indelibly printed on the rear panel of the equipment. This label will last the lifetime of the equipment in the environment in which the equipment will be operated and is not readily detachable.

2. The OM4001A label is readable visible on the backside of the equipment enclosure.

Part (e) Not applicable.

Part (f)

1. The size of the label is 3 by 1.2 inches.

The actual label and its location on the equipment are shown in the following pictures.

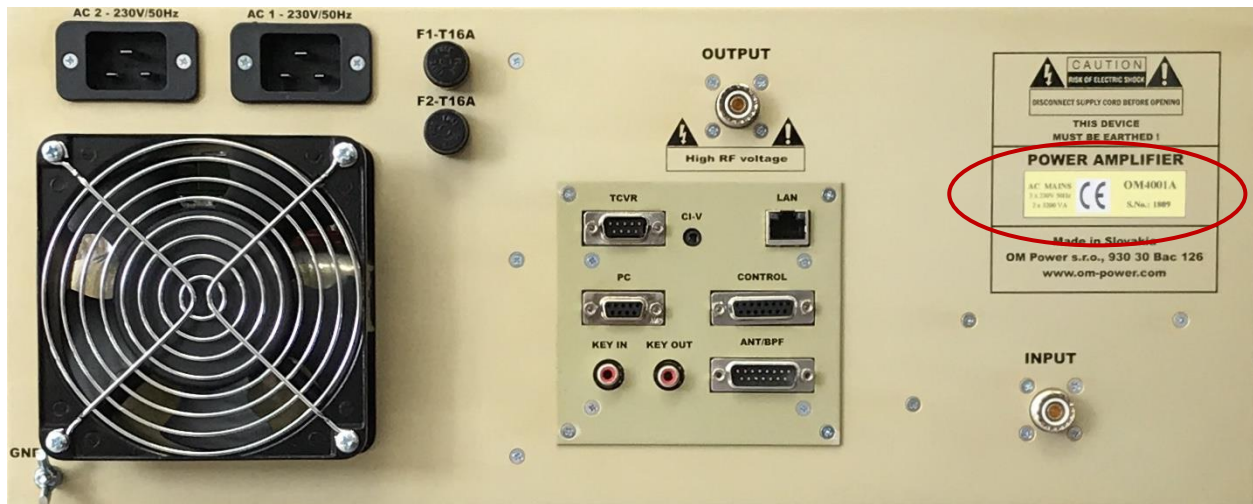

Fig.1 Label location

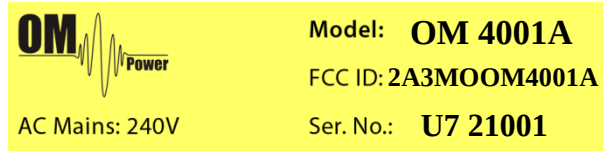

Fig.2 Actual label

In the Serial No., U7 XXYYY U7 stands for USA automatic the XX represents the year (last two digits), the YYY represents the serialized units in order of manufacture and . For example, the first unit will be Serial No. U7 21001 and the 255th unit will be Serial No. U7 21255.

In the FCC ID # Grantee code is: 2A3MO and the OM4001A portion is the equipment product code.