

The label stuck on the enclosure of the bottom side

LB9

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:
(1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and
(2) This device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.