

Note: The FCC 15.19a(3) compliance statement will be placed to the user manual. Since the product label area has been molded on the controller, and the label area is too small to place the statement.