A black, square-shaped electronic device with rounded corners and a 3x3 grid of buttons is shown on a blue background. A yellow ruler is placed next to it for scale, indicating the device is approximately 4.5 cm wide and 4.5 cm high. The device has a small, dark rectangular feature at the top center.

The image shows the bottom of a Dell Latitude E6400 laptop. A yellow ruler is placed vertically on the left side of the laptop, showing measurements from 0 to 50 cm. The laptop's base is black and features a central label with regulatory information, a 'CAUTION' warning, and a 'QUALITY ASSURANCE' table. The label includes the model number 5950280, serial number 00000000000000000000, and various certification logos like CE, FCC, and RoHS. The 'CAUTION' section warns against opening the laptop to avoid electric shock. The 'QUALITY ASSURANCE' table lists various tests and their results.
