OPERATIONS

To set up the charging sphere: Plug the attached AC power cord into a suitable wall outlet. The charging sphere will automatically power on, and the LED indicator light will turn red to show it is ready to charge your devices.

LED INDICATOR LIGHT BEHAVIOR

Red Monster™ Logo	Product is powered on
Blue Grounded Light (on the right of the Monster logo)	Product is grounded. This ensures a stable, reliable operation.
Blue Surge Protection Light (on the left of the Monster logo)	Product is surge protected*. This means it's equipped to protect your devices against sudden voltage spikes.

*NOTE: For surge protection to work, the power station must be properly grounded. If the Grounded Light is off, then the Surge Protection light will also remain off.

To use the magnetic snap wireless charging pad:

Center your smartphone onto the wireless charging pad, and the magnetic components will snap to your device to begin charging.

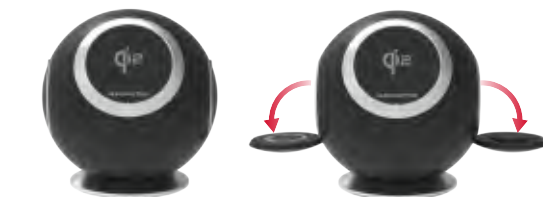

TIPS:

To prevent damage to the device or charging sphere:

- Remove metal cases, or cases with magnet/metal components, from your devices before charging. (Qi wireless chargeable smartphones with metallic-looking finishes will charge normally.)
- Very thick phone cases can obstruct wireless charging. For effective charging, it may be necessary to reposition the smartphone or remove the case.
- Do not place metal objects on the charger.
- Remove or unplug your devices when they are fully charged.

To use the fold-out smart watch + earbud charging platforms:

Gently fold out the platforms as shown below. Each platform is labeled with a symbol (either a smartwatch or earbuds) to indicate the device it is designed to charge. Place your earbuds or smart watch flat in the center of the appropriate charging stand

Charging other devices:

Use a suitable cable to connect your device to one of the charging sphere's USB ports or AC outlets. Be sure to plug the cable fully into the charging sphere and your device. See the product specifications for detailed output information for each port.
