Gentlemen:

ENCO Electronic Systems LLC respectfully requests confidentiality of certain materials provided with the submission of the Halo Pro under FCC ID: 2AHPO-HZM1 in accordance with 47 CFR 0.457(d) and 47 CFR 0.459. The confidentiality request applies to any internal photos or details of internal operation, including theory of operation and internal photos contained in this filing.

The HZM1 and the host equipment for which it was designed, have been developed at considerable effort and expense by ENCO Electronic Systems LLC. These items include novel designs that are considered as Trade Secrets and therefore public access to the proprietary material could possibly result in duplication of equipment that could severely damage the company's business advantage. We request the following information, including files and any other publications be kept confidential, and not be made available to the public in any form:

- 16-2015 – Block Diagram.pdf
- 16-2015 – Schematics.pdf
- 16-2015 – Theory of Operation.pdf
- 16-2015 – InternalPhotos.pdf
- 16-2015 – User Manual.pdf
- Details on the Sigma Design's ZM5202 module incorporated in the HZM1, deemed confidential by Sigma Designs

Access to these documents is restricted, and made available only on the authorization of the management of ENCO Electronic Systems LLC to its employees, subcontractors, authorized dealers etc. Subcontractors, authorized dealers, etc are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement (included in this application) before being granted access to these documents.

I appreciate your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Terry Lance Beasley". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first and last names being more prominent.
