RE: Integration of RFID module solely by Bender

To Whom It May Concern:

We, (Bender GmbH & Co. KG), hereby confirm that the following declaration is valid for the device:

HVIN (Hardware Version Identification Number):	RFID110-L1
PMN (Product Marketing Name):	RFID110-L1
FCC ID:	2AHQO-RFID
IC:	21240-RFID

Integration declaration

The module is integrated solely in conjunction with Bender controller devices under professional installation. In most cases these controller devices serve the purpose of implementing the functionality of an electric vehicle charging station that uses the RFID functionality to authorize charging transactions.

Bender is the only integrator of the module described in this filing. The integration manual is solely used by the grantee and will not be shared with other parties.
