October 22, 2017

Subject: Long-Term Confidentiality Request for Application with FCC ID:
2AHVPSB400M2A

Pursuant to FCC 47 CRF 0.457(d) and 0.459, we request that the following parts of the subject FCC application are held confidential:

- Block Diagrams
- Schematics
- Parts List – Bill of Material (BOM)
- Theory of Operation
- Internal Photos

Radio Solutions, Inc. have spent substantial effort in developing this product with a number of industry-first features. The above materials contain proprietary and confidential information which is not released or made accessible to the public. The public disclosure of these materials would provide unjustified benefits to its competitors in the market.

We are also requesting that the internal photos are kept confidential for an indefinite period.

RSI signal boosters are sold as a system package, installed and serviced exclusively by the trained and certified employees of Radio Solutions, Inc and it's partners and subsidiaries who are required to sign the enclosed non-disclosure agreement

The product is not available for sale to general public and it is only sold as a complete system package which is designed, installed, tested and serviced by RSI trained and certified technicians.

To prevent equipment tampering and to ensure FCC compliance the equipment cabinet is kept locked and the product does not contain any user-serviceable or removable parts.

Appropriate service documentation is provided only to RSI trained and certified service technicians that have signed a non-disclosure agreement.

Enclosed is the sample of our standard non-disclosure (confidentiality) agreement.

We hereby request that the confidential exhibits listed above are permanently withheld from public review.

Sincerely,

Admir Surkovic
CEO, CTO

NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Agreement is made by and between Radio Solutions, Inc., a Massachusetts corporation having its principal place of business at 70 Accord Park Dr. in Norwell, MA ("Company") and _____ whose principal mailing address is _____ ("Recipient").

1. Definition of Confidentiality. As used in this Agreement, "Confidential Information" refers to any information which has commercial value and is either (i) technical information, including patent, copyright, trade secret, and other proprietary information, techniques, sketches, drawings, models, inventions, know-how, processes, apparatus, equipment, algorithms, software programs, software source documents, and formulae related to the current, future and proposed products and services of Company, or (ii) non-technical information relating to Company's products, including without limitation pricing, margins, merchandising plans and strategies, finances, financial and accounting data and information, suppliers, customers, customer lists, purchasing data, sales and marketing plans, future business plans and any other information which is proprietary and confidential to Company.

2. Nondisclosure and Nonuse Obligations. Recipient will maintain in confidence and will not disclose, disseminate or use any Confidential Information belonging to Company, whether or not in written form. Recipient agrees that Recipient shall treat all Confidential Information of Company with at least the same degree of care as Recipient accords its own confidential information. Recipient further represents that Recipient exercises at least reasonable care to protect its own confidential information. If Recipient is not an individual, Recipient agrees that Recipient shall disclose Confidential Information only to those of its employees who need to know such information, and certifies that such employees have previously signed a copy of this Agreement.

3. Survival. This Agreement shall govern all communications between the parties. Recipient understands that its obligations under Paragraph 2 ("Nondisclosure and Nonuse Obligations") shall survive the termination of any other relationship between the parties. Upon termination of any relationship between the parties, Recipient will promptly deliver to Company, without retaining any copies, all documents and other materials furnished to Recipient by Company.

4. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed in all respects by the laws of the United States of America and by the laws of the State of Massachusetts, as such laws are applied to agreements entered into and to be performed entirely within Massachusetts between Massachusetts residents.

5. Injunctive Relief. A breach of any of the promises or agreements contained herein will result in irreparable and continuing damage to Company for which there will be no adequate remedy at law, and Company shall be entitled to injunctive relief and/or a decree for specific performance, and such other relief as may be proper (including monetary damages if appropriate).

6. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement with respect to the Confidential Information disclosed herein and supersedes all prior or contemporaneous oral or written agreements concerning such Confidential Information. This Agreement may only be changed by mutual agreement of authorized representatives of the parties in writing.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties have executed this Agreement as of the date first written below.
