Perpetuum has spent substantial effort in developing this product and it is one of the first of its kind in industry. Having the subject information easily available to "competition" would negate the advantage they have achieved by developing this product. Not protecting the details of the design will result in financial hardship.

Permanent Confidentiality:

The applicant requests the exhibits listed above as permanently confidential be permanently withheld from public review due to materials that contain trade secrets and proprietary information not customarily released to the public.

With respect to Internal Photos provided, the circuit boards the subject of this application are only installed in the Applicants own products and as such are not accessible to users, their being enclosed in a permanently riveted housing which itself is installed in locations not typically accessible to the public. The Internal Photos are not part of any documentation disclosed by the Applicant to purchasers or users of their equipment.

With respect to the User Manual, this is a confidential document controlled through the Applicant's Vault management system. Its use is only for the Applicant's engineers designing the circuit boards of this application into their own products. The users of the Applicant's equipment are under Non-Disclosure-Agreement covering the following areas:

- Information includes all information howsoever communicated by the Disclosing Party to the Recipient Party relating to the Purpose including, but not limited to, commercial information, intellectual property, know-how, data, formulae, processes, designs, photographs, drawings, specifications, samples and any information ascertainable by the inspection or analysis of samples.
- Strictest confidence for 5 years (renewable)
- No disclosure allowed without written permission of the Applicant

Sincerely,

By:  /Engineering Director Jon Gore
