MEPE 1 This equipment has been tested and found to comply with the limits for a Class B digital device, pursuant to part 15 of the FCC Rules. Emissions in this mode are designed to provide reasonable protection against harmful interference to radio communications. This equipment does not contain any Class A or Class B radio frequency energy. It has not been tested or used in accordance with the standards, may cause harmful interference to radio communications, when it is used in close proximity to other electronic equipment. The user is encouraged to be informed of the interference by turning the equipment off and on, and the user is encouraged to be informed of the interference by use of one or more of the following measures:

- Reorient or relocate the receiving antenna.
- Increase the separation between the equipment and the receiver.
- Connect the equipment to an outlet on a circuit different from that to which the receiver is connected.
- Consult the dealer or an experienced radio/TV technician for help.
