

Location: Bottom of Enclosure

Justification for Label Location:

The label will be readily viewable to the device's purchaser or end user at the time of purchase. It is only blocked from view when the device is installed at a normal-usage location (sidewall of wheat/grain bin). This location of the label was chosen to protect the label from the extreme environmental conditions to which the device will be exposed.