Change Contents: [detail reasons for permissive change here]
The reason for the permissive change is to incorporate a new version of the WNC certified cellular LTE module. The new module M18QF will replace the older M18Q2FG using the same PCB, antenna and RF circuit.

The overall design remains the same except using a new version of the module as the older module is no longer recommended and supported by the manufacturer. The exterior label will include the updated WNC M18QF module ID, contains NKRM18QF.

Sincerely,

Dan Crawford
