A black, rectangular electronic device, likely a remote control, is shown against a blue background. The device has a small, recessed area in the center with the following text: "Designed By RETECER E & Tech. Group", "Assembled in China", "F000000000000", and "MODEL B1 DC 6V 1A". A ruler is visible on the right side of the image, indicating the device's size.

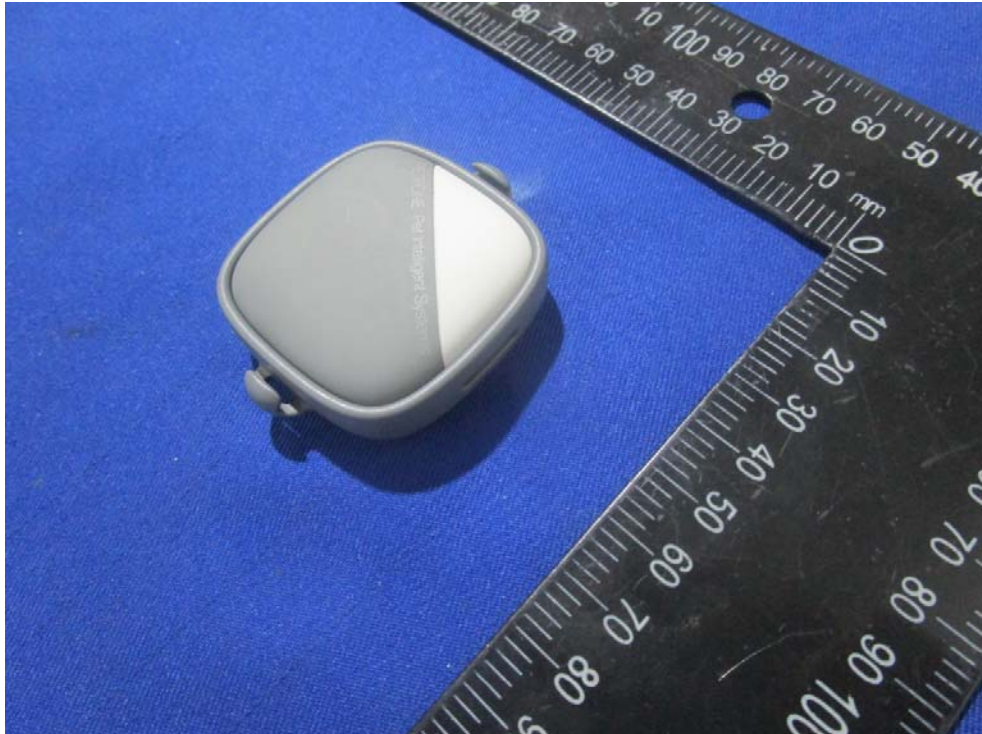

A small, square, light gray object with a diagonal white stripe, placed on a blue surface next to a ruler for scale. The object has rounded corners and two small, dark, circular features on its sides. The ruler is marked in centimeters and millimeters, showing the object is approximately 2.5 cm wide.
