TAT3508

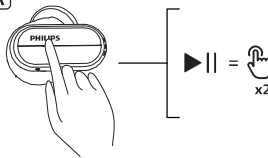

The image displays the Philips TAT3508 3000 Series headphones. It features a dark grey, rectangular charging case with a hinged lid that is open, revealing two earbuds inside. One earbud is shown separately in the foreground, highlighting its ergonomic design and the 'PHILIPS' branding. The background is a clean, light grey gradient.

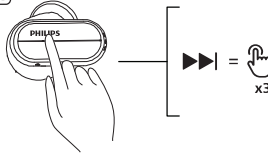

The diagram illustrates the battery insertion process. The top part shows a hand inserting a battery into the open battery compartment of the device. The bottom part shows a timeline: a battery icon is followed by a lightbulb icon, then a 2-hour timer icon, then a right-pointing arrow, then another battery icon, and finally another lightbulb icon, indicating a 2-hour charging cycle.
