RE: FCC ID: 2AVVV-A2

Attestation of Enterprise Access Point Compliance for DA 26-278

To Whom It May Concern:

We, Meter Inc., hereby certify that the equipment in this application (FCC ID: 2AVVV-A2, Model: A2) is not a consumer-grade router and is not available to end users outside a controlled distribution channel and professional installation and therefore is not covered equipment pursuant to DA 26-278 and section 2.911(d)(5)(i) of the FCC rules. Please refer to the following details on the function of A2 access point to support this attestations:

Enterprise Features and Design

The A2 is an enterprise-grade access point, not intended for residential use and may not be installed by the customer. The A2 access point is deployed using professional installation in commercial locations. Furthermore, the following features are used in the access point that are only meant for non-consumer, enterprise use:

- Wireless Intrusion Detection System (WIDS)
- Radio profiles
- Automatic RF management (ACS)
- Packet captures
- WPA2-Enterprise, WPA3-Enterprise
- 802.11r, 802.11k, 802.11v, 802.11w
- VLANs
- Detailed event and audit logs
- Real-time event alerting
- Automatic and schedulable firmware upgrades
- Roaming and RADIUS authentication
- Guest networks and splash pages
- Controlled installation methods: proprietary professional mounting and PoE-powered only
- Meter's Network-As-A-Service business model and support/service contracts

Professional Installation and Controlled Distribution

The A2 device will be deployed through controlled distribution channels. Installation instructions and restrictions as well as output power settings are provided to professional installers to ensure regulatory compliance, offering only power reduction capabilities. This device is not intended for sale to the general public and is not available outside the Meter enterprise sales channel. Users may not acquire or handle this device without a Meter Network service agreement and installation by an authorized installer and arranged by Meter Inc. Professional training and support are provided by Meter Inc. as a part of an authorized installer program.
