

on the back of EUT

e-label:

Your device has been certified by the relevant countries and regions. You can view this electronic certification information on your device. Go to the device's "Settings" menu, select "My Device", tap "Certification Information" to find all applicable electronic certification marks and details.

