

Justification for no antenna gain information

FCC ID: 2AXZD0116800209

The antenna connected to the 13.56 MHz transmitter is integral and the output is measured as a field strength at a given distance. Only radiated measurements are used to show compliance with the FCC limits for fundamental and spurious emissions. Detailed information on the antenna can be found in this filing.