Subject: Request for Long-Term Confidentiality – Internal Photos and User Manual

FCC ID: 2AZ49-KRFU

To Whom It May Concern,

Pursuant to Sections 0.457(d) and 0.459 of the FCC Rules, RAVE Aerospace, LLC hereby requests Long-Term Confidentiality for the Internal Photos and User Manual exhibit.

The subject equipment is an aviation product intended solely for installation within certified aircraft and is not a consumer product.

The equipment is installed in restricted-access aircraft locations and is not accessible to passengers or the general public. Access to the internal circuitry, maintenance, troubleshooting, removal, and replacement of the equipment is limited to authorized aviation maintenance personnel acting under controlled maintenance procedures and confidentiality obligations.

The User Manual contains proprietary technical information intended solely for authorized aviation maintenance personnel and other authorized recipients who are subject to confidentiality obligations. Internal Photos and User Manual information are restricted to authorized personnel, approved maintenance providers, and authorized customers with a legitimate business need. Access to these materials is controlled through confidentiality obligations and restricted distribution practices to prevent public disclosure. Such information is not publicly available and may not be disclosed to unauthorized persons.

Internal photographs and User Manual reveal proprietary hardware architecture, component implementation, and design features that constitute trade secrets and commercially sensitive information.

All sales and distribution of this non-consumer device, including sales through authorized third parties, are subject to Non-Disclosure Agreements (NDAs). The final user of the device is also subject to the applicable NDA and confidentiality obligations governing the protection of proprietary information.

Public release of the Internal Photos and User Manual would provide competitors with access to confidential technical information and would cause substantial competitive harm to RAVE Aerospace, LLC. Therefore, RAVE Aerospace, LLC respectfully requests Long-Term Confidentiality for the Internal Photos and User Manual exhibit.

Sincerely,

MUTUAL NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

This Mutual Non-Disclosure Agreement (the “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of _____, 20 (“Effective Date”), by and between _____ (“Company”), with its principal office located at _____ (“Company Address”) and RAVE Aerospace, LLC (“RAVE”), with its principal office located at 3151 East Imperial Highway, Brea, California 92821, USA. Each of the Company and RAVE is a “Party” and collectively, the “Parties.”

WHEREAS, RAVE and Company recognize that there is a need to disclose to each other certain Confidential Information related to in-flight entertainment and connectivity systems and solutions or otherwise in connection with a potential business relationship or other transaction between the Parties (the “Purpose”), and to proceed for mutual agreements to protect such Confidential Information, and the Parties desire to protect such Confidential Information in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

In consideration of the premises and the mutual covenants herein set forth, the Parties hereby agrees as follows:

1. “Confidential Information” shall mean all information disclosed by one Party or its affiliates (“Disclosing Party”) to the other Party (“Recipient”) in connection with the Purpose contemplated hereby, whether oral or written, including, but not limited to, business technology and plans, engineering materials, financial records, design, source code, manufacturing processes and application, know-how, experimentation, research and development, components, hardware and software products, contents, workings, data, and installation and implementation of the systems or products, that is not generally available in the public domain, including without limitation, any proprietary intellectual property of the Disclosing Party, and all information learned or observed while on the premises or facilities of the other Party. It is understood that Confidential Information shall not include:
 - (a) information which is known to the general public as of the Effective Date, without the fault or breach of any confidentiality obligation on the part of Recipient; or
 - (b) information developed by Recipient independent of any Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party as evidenced by contemporaneous written evidence of the same; or
 - (c) information which is rightfully received from a third party legally and without restriction on disclosure and without breach of any confidentiality obligation to the Disclosing Party; or

- (d) information which is approved for release by the written authorization of the Disclosing Party.
- 2. Recipient shall not use Confidential Information in any manner other than the Purpose provided for in this Agreement. The Recipient hereby further agrees to hold the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information in strict confidence and not to disclose such Confidential Information to any third parties. Recipient may disclose the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information only to its employees, representatives, subcontractors, and affiliates who have a need to know, and only to the extent necessary to carry out the Purpose for which the Confidential Information was disclosed, and Recipient agrees that all such employees, representatives, subcontractors and affiliates shall have been advised of the terms of this Agreement and have agreed to comply herewith. Recipient shall not reverse assemble, reverse compile, reverse engineer any Confidential Information in whole or in part. In the event Recipient becomes aware of any breaches of the confidentiality of, or the misappropriation of, any of the Confidential Information, Recipient shall promptly give notice thereof to the Disclosing Party and shall take appropriate legal steps to protect the rights of the Disclosing Party. The Recipient shall be fully liable to the Disclosing Party for any disclosure of Confidential Information by its employees, representatives, subcontractors or affiliates.

Each item of Confidential Information provided by the Disclosing Party to the Recipient will, to the extent possible, be appropriately marked with a legend restricting the disclosure or use of the information. Any Confidential Information verbally transmitted by the Disclosing Party shall be confirmed in writing within thirty (30) days of the original communication and will be included under this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the failure to include a restrictive legend or otherwise confirm the confidentiality of information will not preclude its status as Confidential Information so long as the Recipient knew or reasonably should have known of the confidential nature thereof.

- 3. In the event Recipient is requested or required (by oral questions, interrogatories, requests for information or documents in a legal proceeding, subpoena, civil investigative demand or other similar process) to disclose Confidential Information, Recipient shall immediately notify the Disclosing Party before disclosing any Confidential Information. If, in the absence of a protective order or receipt of a waiver, Recipient is nonetheless, in the written opinion of counsel, legally compelled to disclose the Confidential Information, Recipient may, without liability hereunder, disclose only that Confidential Information which its counsel advises it is legally required to disclose, provided Recipient uses reasonable efforts to maintain the confidentiality thereof, including, without limitation, cooperating with the Disclosing Party to obtain a protective order or other reliable assurance that the Confidential Information will be treated appropriately.

4. Without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party, unless required by the law in the written opinion of Recipient's counsel, Recipient shall not disclose that Confidential Information which has been made available to Recipient, or that discussions or negotiations may, are, or had been taking place concerning possible dealings between the Parties (including, without limitation, any terms, conditions, status or other facts relating thereto).
5. Recipient acknowledges that monetary damages would not be a sufficient remedy for any breach of this Agreement by it or any of its employees, representatives, subcontractors or affiliates and that the unauthorized disclosure or use of such Confidential Information would cause irreparable harm and significant injury which would be difficult to ascertain. Accordingly, Recipient agrees that in addition to all other remedies available at law or equity, the Disclosing Party shall be entitled to equitable relief, including injunction and specific performance, as a remedy for any such breach of the Agreement.
6. Upon the written request and at the sole option of the Disclosing Party, the Recipient shall either 1) return to the Disclosing Party proof of destruction of all Confidential Information in any tangible form, or 2) return all Confidential Information in any tangible form and all copies thereof together with any notes or other materials prepared by Recipient or its employees containing or based upon the Confidential Information of the Disclosing Party.
7. Recipient hereby acknowledges and agrees that all Confidential Information shall be owned solely by the Disclosing Party. Recipient recognizes and agrees that nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed as expressly or impliedly granting any rights, by license or otherwise, to any Confidential Information owned or controlled by the Disclosing Party and disclosed pursuant to this Agreement.
8. Disclosing Party provides Confidential Information and other materials and information to the Recipient without a warranty of any kind. The Disclosing Party expressly disclaims all warranties and conditions, express or implied, including any implied warranties of merchantability, satisfactory quality, fitness for a particular purpose, or non-infringement of third-party rights. Under no circumstances, including negligence, will the Disclosing Party or any of its directors, officers, employees or agents be liable to the Recipient for any damages whatsoever arising out of this Agreement or relating to the Recipient's use of or reliance on the Disclosing Party's Confidential Information.
9. Company acknowledges that RAVE conducts its business through itself and its affiliate, RAVE Aerospace GmbH. For the avoidance of doubt, Company acknowledges and agrees that Confidential Information specifically includes information disclosed by RAVE affiliates, and Confidential Information disclosed to RAVE may be shared with RAVE affiliates subject to the terms of this Agreement.

10. The Parties acknowledge that certain Confidential Information may be subject to export control laws and regulations. Each Party agrees it shall abide by all applicable export control regulations, (including the U.S. Department of Commerce Export Administration Regulations (EAR), the U.S. Department of State International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR), and the U.S. Department of Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control Order and embargo regulations), and specifically undertakes to refrain from taking any actions in relation to or in furtherance of this Agreement which are contrary to U.S. export control laws and regulations. Each party shall be responsible for obtaining any required export licenses or authorizations for any disclosure to foreign nationals located within a facility of a Party. The Parties further agree to sign, or cause to sign, any applicable end-user certificates which may be necessary to ensure compliance with applicable licenses or authorization. The furnishing of information shall be subject to prior receipt of all necessary government approvals, made only after said approvals are received, and made in a manner consistent with applicable export laws or other governing regulations. The Parties to this Agreement shall not knowingly or unknowingly divert or cause to be diverted, any controlled information or technology to any person, entity, country, or any entity located or incorporated in a country, that is on any denied party list or list of sanctioned countries. The Disclosing Party will label the information disclosed with the appropriate export classification information so that the Recipient is informed of the regulations applicable to such information.
11. Neither Party may make any assignment of this Agreement or any interest herein without the prior written consent of the other Party, by operation of law or otherwise, except that RAVE may assign this Agreement to an affiliate in connection with an internal reorganization of RAVE's business or otherwise in connection with the sale of the business without the consent of the Company.
12. Any legal notices or other communication required or permitted hereunder shall be sufficient if given or sent to the following addresses (or such other addresses as shall be furnished in writing by either Party to the other Party) in a notice conforming with this Section 12. Any notice or communication shall be deemed given as of the date that is the next business day after deposit with a reputable overnight courier, and shall be confirmed as received by the overnight courier in the manner specified above.
