

The device is being manufactured for the Applicant's internal use only, at theme parks affiliated with the Applicant, and will not be sold to third parties unaffiliated with the Applicant. The devices also will be mounted in locations not accessible to the public. The device will be serviceable only by professional designated technicians under a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA).

This antenna is permanently mounted in the device and only installed by professionally trained technicians.

This antenna is mounted in a housing and not accessible by the public, and operated solely by the applicant.