

Justification for no antenna gain information

FCC ID: 2BLRI-LUSHBATHBOT01

As the antennas connected to the 110-205KHz transmitter are integral and the output power is measured as an field strength, antenna gain information is, therefore, not required. Only radiated measurements are used to show compliance with the FCC limits for fundamental and spurious emissions.