

Label Information

ET-OI610

[View of battery compartment]

* The label will be put inside of the device, where the battery compartment is located. If the battery compartment is removed from the main body, the device will not operate.

* 15.19 requirement will be written on the manual due to its size.