RE: FCC ID: AB6S8000
Attention: Glen Moore

I have a few comments on this Application.

1. Your 731 states this is a Part 22H application, however, your reports and other documents are for both Part 22 and 24. Please provide consistent documentation. Please address only the part for which certification is being applied. If this is actually a part 22 and 24 application please correct the 731 form. Otherwise, please provide only those documents applicable to the Part 22 application.
2. Please note that the FCC requires TCBs to list the actual power measured and not the rated putput power of the device. Please correct the 731 to reflect the actual power measured.
