

MARKINGS

Keychain Remote:

The keychain remote provides with the following sentences, or equivalent.

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC rules.

Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- (1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Privacy of communications may not be ensured when using this device.

NOTE: Above markings are shown under the battery cover of the keychain remote.