Subject: Supplement to Original Application for Low Power Communication Transmitter
Panasonic Microcast System / PC Transceiver, Model KX-MC1PC
FCC ID: ACJ96NKX-MC1PC

Dear Mr. Dichoso:

This is in response to your correspondence reference number 7499 sent on April 29, 1999 regarding the subject device with the capability to transmit on 4 channels within the 5.755-5.845 GHz frequency band, but the submitted test report only provided test data for the middle Channel 2 at 5.788 GHz. In accordance with Section 15.31(m), we understand we must provide additional test data generated at Channels 1 and 4 to represent the low and high frequency bands.

Attached, find the requested additional test data generated on Channel 1, 2 and 4 at 5.755, 5.785 and 5.845 GHz and the finalized photographs. Kindly place this information into the existing filed application.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely yours,

Richard Mullen
Project Manager
