

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:
(1) This device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

WARNING: Modification of this device to receive cellular radiotelephone service signals is prohibited under FCC and Federal law.

