

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules and with Industry Canada licence-exempt RSS standard. Operation is subject to the following two conditions:

- (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and
- (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.