Re: FCC ID: AZ492FT5802
Grantee: Motorola, Inc.

Gentlemen:

On behalf of Motorola, Inc., we request Certification for the above referenced transmitter under Part 90 by way of reference to data currently on file under FCC ID: L6AR902M-2-O and additionally we submit the appropriate supplemental test data and exhibits.

A letter from Research In Motion, Limited is submitted as an exhibit with this application. This letter authorizes the FCC to allow Motorola, Inc. to refer to data on file for the FCC ID: L6AR902M-2-O.

The newly identified device uses the identical wireless data modem originally Certified as defined by Part 2.908. Motorola, Inc. makes no physical or electrical changes to the wireless data modem. A monopole antenna is integrated within the HDT515 and is different than the antennas originally Certified with the referenced FCC Identifier.

Thank you for your time and consideration of this application. Please contact the undersigned should you require any additional information concerning this request for Certification.

Sincerely,

To whom it may concern,

Motorola, Inc., of 8000 West Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, FL 33322, is our customer in good standing and will be producing a HD515 Handheld Terminal product which incorporates the RIM 902M radio modem module (FCC ID L6AR902M-2-O).

Motorola will be submitting an application for certification of the final integrated product with a unique FCC ID using their own grantee code. Motorola will submit SAR and ERP data for the final integrated product. For information about the radio modem module please refer to RIM's submission FCC ID L6AR902M-2-O.

In the past, this method has allowed our customers to integrate the radio modem module without repeating FCC part 90 testing or accessing RIM proprietary confidential information. RIM does not disclose proprietary confidential information about our products. Our FCC submissions are considered proprietary confidential information.

Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact our Senior Certification Engineer, Masud Attayi, at (519) 888-7465 x2442 or by email at mattayi@rim.net.

Yours truly,
