

Antenna Info

The device consists of single transmitter with two switchable wire loop antennas. Every antenna can radiate with maximum power of -2.33 dBm EIRP in the direction of the strongest radiation.

The antennas are made of stranded wire with black insulation with both ends soldered to PCB. The total length of each antenna is 22.4 cm. The design ensures that no antennas other than the one provided with the device shall be used with the intentional radiator.