approval of the testing laboratory.

1. The vertical centerline drawn does not agree with the definition of the "cheek" position Clause 6.4.1 paragraph (b) of the IEEE P1528/D1.2, April 21, 2003. Please follow the instructions and definitions under that section. And acoustic output should also be identified and pointed in the drawing. Please provide a new drawing for question.

Fig. 1: Used reference lines.

Indeed there was a failure in the first drawing, please find now the rotated lines.
