Confidentiality Statement to Accompany FCC Form 731
Form 731 Confirmation Number: EA94701
FCC ID: CEKDVM-9601F

To Whom It May Concern:

Daifuku wishes the frequency bands and output power reported in Form 731 and in the accompanying test report to remain confidential. The system in question is used as a communication device in an automatic material handling system. Daifuku wants this information to remain confidential from its competitors who supply similar material handling systems.
