A white wireless router with three external antennas is shown from a top-down perspective. The device has a rectangular shape with rounded corners and a perforated top surface for ventilation. A label on the top surface reads 'WULINK-2', 'IEEE 802.11n', and '802.11b/g'. A ruler is visible in the top left corner, indicating the device's size. The router is placed on a blue fabric surface.
