To whom it may concern,

We, Intermec Technologies, hereby attest that the model DDIB radio module will be used only in Intermec devices. DDIB installation and configuration will be done only by Intermec manufacturing and service personnel. The radio will not be serviceable by the end user.

Compliance information and customer documentation regarding proper use and operation of the DDIB radio module will be provided to the user with the end product.

Please contact me by telephone at (425) 356-1765 or by e-mail (sean.mackellar@Intermec.com) if there are questions or additional information needed

Sincerely,
