

FCC/IC ID
LABEL Location

The image shows a square electronic device with a blue outer frame and a black textured faceplate. The faceplate has six screws: four at the corners and two in the center. A black label with white text is positioned in the upper center of the faceplate. Two black cables are connected to the bottom of the device, each using a right-angle connector. The device is mounted on a light-colored, textured wall.