

Front View

Power I/O Connector

Connector visible on right is for pressurizing the enclosure with an inert gas.
On the left is the ground/earthing post with attached braided cable for lightning control.

