COMPLIANCE WITH PART 15.214

The cordless telephone utilizes a 16bit digital coding system to protect against unintentional access of the base unit and unintentional ringing of the handset. A random 16bit is automatically selected each time the handset is placed into the base cradle.