A photograph of a Honeywell B5300-2 barcode scanner, a small handheld device. It is positioned vertically next to a ruler for scale. The scanner is black with a silver-colored front face. The back of the device is visible, showing various regulatory markings including CE, FCC, and RoHS, as well as the model number B5300-2 and the website www.bsi.gate.in. A small label with the text "Honeywell" and "B5300-2" is also visible. The ruler shows measurements in both inches and centimeters, with the scanner's height being approximately 10 cm.
