CERTIFICATION AGREEMENT

By signing this agreement the client enters into a Certification Agreement with Kiwa Ltd (the certification body) and agrees to comply with the following requirements:

- a) the client always fulfils the certification requirements, including implementing appropriate changes when they are communicated by the certification body;
- b) if the certification applies to ongoing production, the certified product continues to fulfil the product requirements;
- c) the client makes all necessary arrangements for:
 - 1) the conduct of the evaluation and surveillance (if required), including provision for examining documentation and records, and access to the relevant equipment, location(s), area(s), personnel, and client's subcontractors;
 - 2) investigation of complaints;
 - 3) the participation of observers, if applicable;
- d) the client makes claims regarding certification consistent with the scope of certification
- e) the client does not use its product certification in such a manner as to bring the certification body into disrepute and does not make any statement regarding its product certification that the certification body may consider misleading or unauthorized;
- f) upon suspension, withdrawal, or termination of certification, the client discontinues its use of all advertising matter that contains any reference thereto and takes action as required by the certification scheme (e.g. the return of certification documents) and takes any other required measure;
- g) if the client provides copies of the certification documents to others, the documents shall be reproduced in their entirety or as specified in the certification scheme;
- h) in making reference to its product certification in communication media such as documents, brochures or advertising, the client complies with the requirements of the certification body or as specified by the certification scheme;
- i) the client complies with any requirements that may be prescribed in the certification scheme, Directive or Regulation, relating to the use of marks of conformity, and on information related to the product;
- j) the client keeps a record of all complaints made known to it relating to compliance with certification requirements and makes these records available to the certification body when requested, and:
 - 1) takes appropriate action with respect to such complaints and any deficiencies found in products that affect compliance with the requirements for certification;
 - 2) documents the actions taken;
- k) the client informs the certification body, without delay, of changes that may affect its ability to conform with the certification requirements. Examples of changes can include the following:
 - the legal, commercial, organizational status or ownership,
 - organization and management (e.g. key managerial, decision-making or technical staff),
 - modifications to the product or the production method,
 - contact address and production sites,
 - major changes to the quality management system.
