

Friday, August 17, 2001

Federal Communications Commission
OET Laboratory Division
7435 Oakland Mills Road
Columbia, MD 21046

Re: Request For Confidentiality

FCC ID: J5XTPASSTX

Name of Grantee: Grace Industries Incorporated

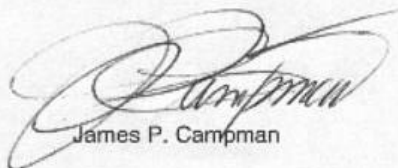

Please be advised that the following information is to be designated and held in confidence, and removed from the FCC web sight, on behalf of Grace Industries Incorporated:

1. All schematic diagrams, specifically, exhibit 2 documents GRACETX sheets 1 and 2.
2. Drawings of circuit board films, specifically GRATXL.pcb layer 1 sketch, GRATXL.pcb layer 1 conductor.
3. Drawing titled "TRANSMISSION TIMING DIAGRAM", document number SSTX_998C.DSN.
4. All letter and fax correspondence from Nichols RF Systems, specifically the documents dated March 3, 1999 (fax), March 18, 1999 (letter) and May 15, 1999 (letter).
5. Document titled "FCC Test and Evaluation Submission for Grace Industries, Inc. Spread Spectrum Radio Life Safety Transmitter", and all attachments A, B, C, D, and E.

For your convenience, included is a copy of all documentation tagged as confidential and is to be removed from the FCC web sight. This information contains technical information deemed to be trade secrets and proprietary. This information can be used to the disadvantage of the grantee in the market place.

Thank you for your attention to this matter, and please expedite this request as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

James P. Campman

President, Grace Industries Inc.

FCCconfidential.doc