

Label & Label location

Label is permanently affixed within the ports compartment. End-user must open this compartment to connect power cable and HDMI / USB-C / etc. cables prior to usage and label will be visible to end-user during installation of the device.

