

Description of Model Difference

| Model name | Model Difference                                                                                                                                        |
|------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 520R       | Used in water meter pit application. Radio enclosure designed to install into water meter pits. Refer to user installation guide for more detail.       |
| 510R       | Used in non-pit application. Radio enclosure is a generic design for multiple types of installations. Refer to user installation guide for more detail. |