

FCC ID Label

---

1. The following document provides the information regarding the FCC ID label .
2. The equipment label shown below is affixed to the IrriWise/Speed/ Galaxy Transceiver on the side panel.

|                             |                                                                                    |
|-----------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| FCC ID: MLLGL2RPT150 |  |
| Model: Repeater 2A   |                                                                                    |
| S/N: _____                  |                                                                                    |
| Mitel Communicatins  | Made in Israel                                                              |

---

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

|                             |                                                                                      |
|-----------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| FCC ID: MLLGL2RPT150 |  |
| Model: Receiver 2A   |                                                                                      |
| S/N: _____                  |                                                                                      |
| Mitel Communicatins  | Made in Israel                                                                |

---

This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules. Operation is subject to the following two conditions: (1) this device may not cause harmful interference, and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.

Label Dimensions: 58 mm. x 24 mm.

Label Location: Transceiver side panel

