Regarding: Confidentiality Request regarding application for FCC ID N5OD3DRCJ

LONG TERM CONFIDENTIALITY

Pursuant to 47 CFR Section 0.459 and 0.457 of the commission's rules, the applicant hereby requests confidential treatment of the documents listed below, associated with the certification application referenced above.

Schematic(s)
Block Diagrams
Operational Descriptions
Theory of operation
Parts lists
Internal Photos

The documents above contain proprietary information not released to the public. Public disclosure of this information may prove harmful to the business of the applicant.

All of our facilities have restricted access as well as camera/photo prohibition in order to prevent internal photos information from becoming public or disclosed to unauthorized persons. All personnel are under NDA.

All of the circuit boards are covered with a thick layer of protective silicon/epoxy seal. The seal covers the entire board and prevents the public from accessing internal information. The products are non-serviceable due to the coating of the boards.

All sales of the non-consumer radio remote control will be under an NDA which includes third party sales and the final users. A copy of the NDA is appended with this request.

Internal photo illustrate the radio components shape and layout and give the possibility for competitors to recognize the radio platform and radio solution used. The layout of radio part is unique and is the proprietary intellectual property. Publishing of layout will disclose the design trade secrets and help to copy and theft the intellectual trade secrets with commercial and financial consequences.

Scanreco AB has invested considerable time and materials in research and development to produce the referenced product. Disclosure of the permanently confidential portions of this application to competitors would not only give them significant competitive advantages in developing similar products, but would also disclose successful implementation of unpublished, leading edge technology developed by us.

If you have questions or need further information, please contact the undersigned.
