Hi Mike,

Here are our replies.

Question #1: The proposed FCC ID label format does not comply with FCC rule. The FCC ID number shall be in the format of " FCC ID:NV6-CS8035". In the proposed ID label format, FCC DoC logo is used instead of FCC. Please submit revised FCC ID label format.

Our Reply #1: The FCC ID label format is revised as attached.

Question #2: This device is portable device, please delete section 7.7 MPE estimate information from Test report.

Our Reply #2: Removal is done as attached.

Question #3: In the last page of user manual, it include MPE safety information and 20 cm separation distance separation on this portable device. Please remove these statement and provide revised user manual.
