Dear Sir or Madam:

This equipment meets the requirements of FCC Rules as stated in Parts 90.203(e) and (g) as applicable.

Programming of this product's transmitter frequency can be ONLY accomplished by the manufacturer, a qualified service/maintenance personnel. This is controlled by controlling the distribution of the programming software and/or cloning cable hardware. The operator cannot program transmit or receive frequencies using the equipment's external controls.

Sincerely,

Walter C Simciak
Chief Engineer
