

Conducted Spurious Measurement Test Setup

The Signal generator supplies a low RF level that is amplified, by the LNA, to a suitable input RF level to the PA.

The HPF provides the necessary dynamic level for the input to the spectrum analyzer measurement.