

1) The product label with FCC ID is stuck on the back of the CF card as the photo below.

2) 2 labels are attached for reference.

This statement will be placed in User's Manual
This device complies with Part 15 of the FCC Rules.
Operation is subject to the following two conditions:
(1) this device may not cause harmful interference and (2) this device must accept any interference received, including interference that may cause undesired operation.